KINGS AND QUEENS RISE CO-ED BASKETBALL COACH'S CODE OF CONDUCT

Coaching a youth sport program is a privilege that is not to be taken for granted. As a Coach, you have an important role in the development of the young children in our community. We strive to teach each child the positive values of trust, good sportsmanship, good citizenship, responsibility, respect, fair play and teamwork – values they can use throughout their lives.

Sportsmanship

1. I will promote good sportsmanship, teach team and life skills, and have fun in the process.
2. I accept, agree and will practice the principle that a team's reputation is built not only on its playing ability, but also on its sportsmanship, courtesy and manner.
3. I understand that physical or verbal abuse of an official, coach, player, or spectator, including obscene gestures, will not be tolerated and that the offender may be removed from the court at the discretion of a referee or CIL Leader.
4. I understand coaches will refrain from complaining about perceived bad calls to players and fans.
5. I understand all discussions will be held in conversational tones. Under no circumstances will a coach, fan, or player yell at a referee, coach, fan, or player. The lone exception to this rule is when a coach or player shouts to another coach or teammate during the course of a play as part of that play.

3. I will teach each player, especially through personal example, to be humble and generous in victory and proud and courteous in defeat.
4. I understand that coaches are selected by the league and are responsible for the team's actions on the court and to represent the team in communications with the referee, opposing teams and League.
5. If a coach leaves the court, he shall designate a coach as a substitute who will then be responsible and held accountable for the coach's duties.
6. I will notify CIL Leaders if I am unable to attend any games, practices or meetings.

The Referees and Other Resources

1. I recognize basketball is a game of interpretations, and as a result, disputes will occur from time to time. However, it is important that players learn respect. All disputes that are taken up with the referee will be handled in a civil manner.
2. The coaches will conduct themselves with decorum during any and all disputes and once the referee has made his/her final ruling, the coaches will make no further field protest.

3. I will complete, obtain and submit to the League all required paperwork.
4. I will make sure that I maintain a notebook containing the CLL Rules and a copy of the national Little League rule book and make sure it is present at each team practice and game.
5. I understand that I am the point of contact between my team and other teams and CLL officials. I understand that I am the person that is responsible for my team. I will take my obligations seriously and communicate effectively and in a courteous manner.
